

IMPACT STATEMENT

The Amos and Celia Heilicher Minneapolis Jewish Day School inspires and educates students to become critical thinkers, ethical people, and strong community leaders. HMJDS educates our students to their highest potential, roots them in Jewish values and empowers them to use their knowledge, skills, and creativity to enrich our world.

Our students are rigorous thinkers who challenge conventional wisdoms, communicate powerfully and clearly, advocate for themselves and others, and are well prepared for the next stages of their educational lives. Our students feel positive about themselves and others by engaging in arts, wellness, and social justice. Our students love learning and embrace Judaism, Jewish heritage, and the state of Israel with a curriculum that reflects respect for the wide diversity of Jewish life. Our inspirational faculty foster creativity, connection, and professional growth. Our students come from diverse abilities, financial means, geographic origins, and family backgrounds to a school where all students are known and appreciated as individuals.

Our graduates are rabbis, teachers, doctors, lawyers, activists, artists, business people, researchers, public servants, devoted parents, and community leaders and volunteers. They are seekers of justice, engaged voices of fairness, and fine role models for their children and grandchildren. Intellectual and spiritual identity form early in life, and the Heilicher School is honored to be a partner in shaping the next generation of Jewish citizens.

“It is not up to you to finish the job. Neither are you free to withdraw from it.” (Mishnah Avot 2:16)

So states one of the ten core Jewish values that permeates school life at Heilicher. For our students this means that an individual’s contribution, however modest, is essential to the success of the task. Your legacy commitment ensures the extraordinary education students receive at Heilicher can continue long into the future.

Please join us today by making your legacy commitment.
